

Civil Action No
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

Friedrich Lu, Plaintiff ) Civil Action No
V )
John F Kerry, et al, Defendants )

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY ENTIRE DISTRICT COURT AND FOR INTRACIRCUIT ASSIGNMENT

- (1) The Complaint lists chief judge and clerk of this court as defendants, the former for administrative function. The complaint also implicated two judges (John Milton Younge and R Barclay Surrick) of this court. All are for alleged judicial corruption.
- (2) Plaintiff Friedrich Lu moves to disqualify all judges of this court, and at the same for intracircuit assignment. See Nichols v Alley (CA10 1995) 71 F.3d 347, 350 (disqualifying judge, though he “lost no family or friends in the bombing”) (per curiam).

Attached please find a letter of Lu to chief judge of the Third Circuit.

Under penalty of perjury, I certify that on the same day I post a copy of this letter via first class mail, postage prepaid.

On or about Mar 11, 2024, guided by Christopher v Harbury (2002) 536 US 403 I will commence a civil action Friedrich Lu v John F Kerry at United States District Court for Eastern District of Pennsylvania. The chief judge and clerk of that court will be named defendants, with the former in the administrative function. Among the papers filed in the first batch will be my motion to disqualify the entire district court, and a motion for intracircuit assignment of district judge under 28 USC § 292(b) with this letter attached.
